

Lukestone Care Home residents have fun making slime

We had a great time with our residents at Lukestone Care Home recently when we got them involved with making some slime!

We all enjoyed playing with the slimy mixtures we had created, pulling and squeezing the slime between our fingers – such gooey fun and a wonderful bit of sensory exploration.

We took photos of the activity for World Photography Day – a little slice of life at Lukestone!

