

Things get wild at Lukestone Care Home

Staff from Wild Science came to visit our residents at Lukestone Care Home last week, bringing with them some fascinating fluffy and scaly friends!

Wild Science experts provide animal workshops, showcasing a diverse range of animals for audiences to enjoy and interact with.

Our residents really look forward to seeing animals and they loved holding and petting the Wild Science visitors, which this time included a lovely rabbit, friendly Guinea pig and inquisitive snake!

